

FIFTY FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

SOUTH CAROLINA DEFENSE TRIAL ATTORNEYS' ASSOCIATION

November 15-18, 2018

The Sanctuary Hotel at Kiawah Island, SC

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Greetings!

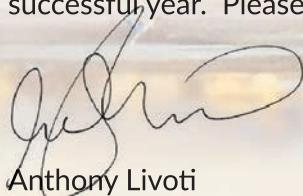

A world-class venue, outstanding programming, and engaging social events await you at the 2018 South Carolina Defense Trial Attorneys' Association Annual Meeting. As we wrap up the year-long celebration of the fiftieth year of the Association's founding, our Annual Meeting promises to exceed your expectations. The Annual Meeting Committee of Giles Schanen, Graham Powell, Lucy Grey McIver, and Amy Geddes has been hard at work putting together another outstanding program that I know you will benefit from and enjoy.

We start our weekend with the traditional President's Welcome Reception Thursday evening that I am honored to host. Friday morning starts with our popular Breakfast with the Judiciary and will be a chance to continue to grow relationships between the bench and the bar. Our Friday keynote speaker will be Craig Thompson from Venable, LLP in Baltimore, MD. Craig is the current president of the IADC and will encourage us on "Next Level Leadership: How to Serve and Succeed." Other substantive programs include a discussion on Sentry Select Ins. V. Maybank, as well as a federal judicial panel of Judges Marvin Quattlebaum, Michelle Childs, and Richard Gergel. Our Platinum Sponsor R&D Strategic Solutions will give us a talk on jury selection. We thank them for their sponsorship and look forward to learning more about this vital aspect of trying cases. Friday afternoon activities include our golf tournament, a fishing excursion, and enjoying the beach. We will again have our black-tie gala Friday evening with the always entertaining Atlanta Rhythm and Groove.

Justice John Few of the South Carolina Supreme Court will start us off on Saturday morning and Professor Nathan Crystal will bring us our ethics hour on dealing with conflicts. Our keynote speaker for Saturday will be New York Times Bestselling Author Denise Kiernan. Denise's latest book is The Last Castle, about the building of Biltmore House and the end of the "Gilded Age." I've already read it and it is excellent. I'm very excited to have Denise join us for the weekend. We wrap up the weekend with a Lowcountry oyster roast and dinner at Mingo Point.

Finally, our new initiative, the "Emerging Leaders Program" is off to a great start. We have 35 lawyers participating this year and we had 11 lawyers attend the leadership breakout at the Summer Meeting. Our Emerging Leaders breakout at the Annual Meeting will be a leadership panel of IADC President Craig Thompson, IADC and SCDTAA Past President John T. Lay, and DRI Mid-Atlantic Regional Director John Owen. This breakout panel promises to be a great exposition on becoming a more effective leader. I hope you will join us for it.

This year has flown by, but I wouldn't trade it for anything; it has been an honor serving as your Association President. I want to thank the Officers and Board of Directors for all they have done this year to make it another successful year. Please join us as we celebrate at The Sanctuary.

6:15am Beach Run – Join fellow attendees for a relaxing run on the beach.

Complimentary

12:30p.m. Golf Tournament – To be played on the Osprey Point Course. Osprey Point is one of the most popular courses with resort guests. Totally renovated in 2014 under the direction of course architect Tom Fazio, Osprey Point features tees, greens and fairways grassed with Paspalum. Fazio blended a par-72 layout that takes advantage of its setting. The course offers a wide variety of holes, each presenting its own unique challenges and beauty, which are bound to produce an enjoyable round. Each hole is unique and memorable. There are four challenging par-3s, four extremely distinctive par-5s and ten outstanding par-4s ranging in length from 340 yards to 461 yards from the championship tees.

Since Fazio's design was for a member's only type of course, Osprey Point is very playable for the average golfer. It features generous landing areas and few forced carries. From the proper tees, the course poses appropriate challenges to the better golfers and fairness to the high-handicapper, senior golfers and junior golfers. For the better player, the course is very challenging with plenty of hazards to avoid, numerous risk/reward options and doglegs that go both left to right and right to left, requiring a premium on both accuracy and finesse. Osprey Point is ranked 10th in Golf For Women magazine's list of the "50 Best Golf Courses for Women," It was also recently awarded a near-perfect 4½ stars in Golf Digest's "Best Places to Play" reader's poll where it was considered one of the best values in South Carolina.
